

Notification of short-listed candidates for interview for the post of Case Counsel

Note:

As the number of eligible candidates for this position were less, we will float the advertisement once again for the same.

The applications already received for the position of Case Counsel with reference to the advertisement dated 24th June 2021 will be considered automatically for the above mentioned new advertisement and therefore need not to apply again.