Dr. Vrajlal Sapovadia is a prominent academician and consultant with extensive experience in various fields, including finance, management accounting, and corporate law. Dr. Sapovadia has worked across three continents — Asia, Africa, and America — and has held significant positions such as the Director at Shanti Business School in Ahmedabad and Dean of the School of Business and Entrepreneurship at the American University of Nigeria. Currently, he is also Professor of Practice at National Forensic Science University, Gandhinagar.

Dr. Sapovadia is a Fellow member of Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. In Management Accounting, LL.M (Commercial Law), LL.M. (Property Law), MBA (Finance), Certified Information System Auditor and have worked as core faculty member in national prestigious institutes like BK School of Business Management and IIM Indore.

Dr. Sapovadia is highly regarded in the academic community, being in the top 1% of authors on SSRN with over 200 publications. His research has been published by several prominent academic and professional platforms, which have been featured in esteemed publications such as the Harvard International Review and journals by Elsevier. Additionally, he has numerous publications listed on platforms like SSRN (Social Science Research Network) and the University Library of Munich, Germany, through the MPRA (Munich Personal RePEc Archive). He has also contributed to various articles and papers on ResearchGate and Academia.edu etc. His research interests span corporate governance, cooperatives, microfinance, women empowerment, accounting, finance, Socio-economic development, cryptocurrency, and digital economy. He has received numerous international fellowships from prestigious institutions like the World Bank, London Business School, United Nations, IMF, Canada International Development Agency, International Cooperative Alliance, International Cooperative Summit, Japanese Cosumers' Co-operative Union, Desjardin Bank Canada, Swedish International Development Agency among others.