

Workshop on “Indian Economy & Blue Budget 2025”

Gujarat Maritime University's Centre for Maritime Economy successfully organized a workshop on “Indian Economy & Blue Budget 2025” on 22nd February 2025.

The session was led by Shri Rajesh Menon, Associate Director, Logistics Division, DPIIT, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, and Maritime Expert: PM Gati Shakti. He provided strategic insights into the Union Budget 2025, discussing key policy interpretations and their implications on the maritime sector. Shri Menon also elaborated on the three-stage framework for long-term maritime sector development: Strategy, Policy, and Funding

GMU students from MBA & LLM batches showcased their perspectives on the Union Budget 2025 and its impact on the maritime sector through insightful presentations on topic of “Indian economy & Blue Budget-2025”.

Group -1: MBA Shipping & Logistics (Batch 2024-2026)

1. Raj Patil
2. Raj Choudhary
3. Vasudha Singh Chauhan
4. Russica Chauhan
5. Aatman Pathak
6. Om Kothari

Group-2: LLM (Batch 2024-2025)

1. Tuhupiya Kar
2. Nihal Kumar
3. Sruti Wala

Group-3: MBA Shipping & Logistics (Batch 2023-2025)

1. Satyam Kumar Singh
2. Yashika Agrawal
3. Akshat Kishore Shrivastava
4. Godha Jyotika

Their analysis was well-received, earning appreciation from experts and faculty members.

Prof. Dr. Vrajlal Sapovadia, Adjunct Professor at GMU, presented a comprehensive analysis of the budget, highlighting its economic implications and its role in shaping India's maritime future. Dr. Dharmesh Raval, Centre Head gave concluding remarks and thanked all experts and volunteers for the successful organization of the event.

The workshop provided an engaging platform for students and experts to exchange ideas on maritime economic policies, reinforcing GMU’s commitment to fostering thought leadership in the sector.

#GujaratMaritimeUniversity #MaritimeEconomy #BlueBudget2025 #UnionBudget2025
#MaritimeSector #GMUEvents

